

2022 AUTOMATIC REONSES

Pre-primary

Mental Maths

- identify and count from 0 to 100
- skip count in 2s, 5s, 10s to 100 (can learn tables if appropriate)
- addition and subtraction to 10
- number before and after up to 30
- identify and name attributes for 2D and 3D shapes
- copy, continue and create AB patterns
- basic positional language (under, over etc.)
- time yesterday, today and tomorrow
- time of day morning, afternoon and night
- sequencing events (3)
- days of the week/months of the year
- reading pictographs
- language of size of measurement (small/smaller/smallest)-
- comparing units (heavier/heaviest)
- identifying Australian coins

Grammar

- letters of the alphabet (26)
- letter names and sounds (42 Jolly Phonics sounds)
- vowels
- writing their own name and spelling it
- identify initial, final and medial sounds
- identifying number of words in a sentence
- syllables (up to 5)
- rhyme (identify and produce)
- onset and rhyme (manipulation)
- parts of speech (nouns, pronouns, proper nouns, verbs, adjectives)
- punctuation (capital letters, lower case letters, full stop, question mark)
- Tricky Hat words (read and identify 75)
- Oxford Sight words (1-100)
- dictation of CVC words
- able to identify correct sentence structure (left to right, spacing, top to bottom)

Spelling Rules

- magic 'e'
- digraphs (alternative ai/ay/a-e))
- two vowels go walking the first one does the talking

Poetry

- acrostic poems
- haiku
- nursery rhymes (10 per term)

HISTORY

- my family tree
- languages
- flags of origin
- traditional clothing and foods
- Aboriginal studies

GEOGRAPHY

- name
- address
- phone number
- map of Australia
- States of Australia
- where do I come from?
- Australian animals

STEM

- design and technology
- the way objects move (push, pull)
- objects materials

Science

- Objects - produced or natural, different sizes and shapes and can be moved by pushing and pulling.
- Materials objects are made of – wood, paper, glass, metal, fabric and plastic
- Weather can be observed over the year - the four seasons and the six Aboriginal seasons for Perth.
- The five senses - sight, hearing, smell, touch and taste.
- Living things (plants and animals) and non-living things (rocks and water)
- Predict and give a reason.
- Share and record observations.

Phys Ed

- jump, skip, hop, run, walk,
- left and right
- follow directions
- copy patterns

LOTE

-hello in different languages

The Arts

- colours of the rainbow
- colour mixing (yellow and blue makes green)
- music, rhymes
- names of musical instruments
- soft and loud
- body percussion

Manners

- please/thank you
- turn taking
- put hand up to speak
- listen to others when speaking
- respect self, others and the school